

Curriculum Vitae

Schlaht, Jürgen

CURRENT POSITION

Name of company

Job position

Siemens AG

Head of department "Technology and Innovation" for Rolling Stock in Mobility Division

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

After joining Siemens AG in Erlangen in 1984 as a sales engineer and project manager in transportation systems mass transit, Jürgen Schlaht worked in transportation area internationally in several functions. For example he was subgroup leader of Rolling Stock within the turnkey project Metro Athens line2&3. After that he had project and sales responsibility for mass transit products like metros and tramways in several European countries as well as electrical driven buses worldwide for some years. After that Jürgen Schlaht turned into the mainline railway business at Siemens AG, mainly responsible for market analysis, product and product portfolio strategy. Jürgen Schlaht was also responsible for elaborating and implementation of processes for requirements engineering and product life cycle management. Today Jürgen Schlaht is leading the department for Technology and Innovation for Siemens Rolling Stock. In Brussels he has several mandates in Shift2Rail, UNIFE and ERRAC.

EDUCATION AND TRAININGS:

Jürgen Schlaht studied Electrical Engineering at the Friedrich-Alexander-University in Erlangen, where he graduated in 1984 as an electrical Engineer (Dipl.Ing.Univ.)

EXTRAS:

Jürgen Schlaht published several articles in journals of transportation sector, also he participated as speaker in several international events around the transportation sector. You can find them in the internet by looking for Jürgen Schlaht.

@Linkedin: <http://www.linkedin.com/in/juergen-schlaht-7126b020>