

Curriculum Vitae

HAINZ, Svenja

CURRENT POSITION

Name of company

Job position

DLR

Representative Transport Research in Brussels office

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Svenja Hainz is representing the interest of the German Aerospace Center (DLR e.V.) at European level in the field of transportation research. The collaboration with European bodies such as the European Commission and the European Parliament lies in her area of responsibility as well as engagement in DLR's European strategy processes and involvement in large-scale projects.

In 2017, she joined DLR as a scientific researcher at the Institute of Transportation Systems with her main focus lying on the integrated impact assessment of railways systems. In the Shift2Rail project IMPACT-1 she was responsible for the development of a Key Performance Indicator (KPI) model assessing the impact of the Shift2Rail programme in the future railway sector and took over the WP lead in the successor project IMPACT-2 until 2020.

EDUCATION AND TRAININGS:

Transportation Planning and Operation – Technical University of Berlin – M.Sc.

2017

Areas of Concentration: Rail transport; air transport; integrated mobility

Thesis: "Requirements for optimised processes in the rail freight traffic from the customer's point of view" (translated title)

Economics and Engineering – Technical University of Dresden – B.Sc.

2015

Areas of Concentration: Accounting and Finance; Transport Engineering

Thesis: "Accounting and Monitoring of Business processes" (translated title)

EXTRAS:

[Additional information (for example publications) related to the position]