

COUNTRY FICHE

GENERAL INFORMATION

A: Legal Basis:

| | |
|--|---|
| Art 20.9 of the Single Basic Act: The SRG shall report to the GB, and act as an interface with the JU, on the following matters: | Status of relevant national/regional R&I programmes |
| | Identification of cooperation areas including concrete actions for deployment/uptake of technologies/innovative solutions |
| | Dissemination events, communication activities |
| | National/regional measures concerning deployment activities in relation to JU |
| | National/regional initiatives ensuring complementarities with JU SRIA Agenda/AWP |
| Art. 20.10 of the Single Basic Act: The SRG shall submit, at the end of each calendar year, a report: | Describing national/regional policies in the scope of the JU Identifying specific ways of cooperation with the actions funded by the JU |

B. General Information – to be filled in by each SRG representative and submitted to the EU-RAIL JU on an annual basis:

| | | |
|--|---|--|
| Policy | Competent authority: | German Ministry for Digital and Transport |
| | Contact details: name and e-mail | Nico Bogdan, nico.bogdan@bmdv.bund.de Ariane Boehmer, boehmera@dzsf.bund.de |
| Strategy | Short description of priorities | Federal Research Programme of Rail Transport (2022): Targets and priorities for rail research in the medium term |
| | Areas covered | Railways including Light Rail |
| | Web-links | https://www.dzsf.bund.de/DZSF/EN/Research_Programm/research_programme_node.html |
| Dedicated or other related programmes | Short description, including Technology Readiness Levels covered within the programme | The research agenda of the German Rail Traffic Research Institute (DZSF) corresponds closely to the Federal Research Programme of Rail Transport. DZSF is the departmental research institute of the German Ministry of Transport. DZSF operates as an independent, scientific departmental research institution for the Federal Government. |

| | | |
|---|---------------------------------|---|
| | | Other departments of the German Federal Government provide calls and partly departmental research work to contribute to the Rail Research Programme for the railway system. |
| Calls/Funding scheme identifications | Short description | See Annex: DE_Reporting_GENERAL_Calls Funding schemes |
| | Time-plan | |
| | Available budget | |
| | Strategic priorities | |
| | Web-link | |
| | Future calls (time plan if any) | |

| | | |
|--|--|--|
| General dissemination events, communication activities | Short description, including target audience for, for example, : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - General info days - National programme consultation | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - BMBF (Ministry for Education and Research): National Programme consultations and Disseminations on Horizon Europe (various events), e.g. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Horizon Europe info day - Cluster 5, 17.10.2023 ▪ Workshop für Antragstellende in Horizont Europa für die Cluster 4, 5 und 6, 03.05.2023 - 04.05.2023 ▪ GREENET Brokerage Event for HE Cluster 5 - 2024 calls, 18.10.2023 ▪ Europäische Partnerschaften in Horizont Europa – Nationales Stakeholder-Forum, 18. -19.09.2023 - BMDV (Ministry for Digital and Transport): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Exchange on ERJU with the German Ecosystem: regularly |
|--|--|--|